

Miguel's Horse

by Tina Parayre & Belén Roldán

MIGUEL'S HORSE

EXTRAORDINARY STORIES FROM A CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL VOLUNTEERS

BY TINA PARAYRE & BELÉN ROLDÁN

134 pages

Testimony

- First edition sold out in 2 weeks.
- Both hard-hitting and tender accounts of the sharing between caretakers and patients.
- We can learn about humanity, solidarity, endurance, compromise, life and love from a child's raw, unconditional innocence. hard-hitting and tender accounts of the sharing between caretakers and patients.

SYNOPSIS

In Miguel's Horse, reality and emotion go hand in hand. The group of volunteers at the Sant Joan de Déu Children's Hospital pour in it their heart and soul, their experiences, memories and, above all, the principle which drives them: children learn and teach about life and love. The stories contained in this volume arouse our desire to enjoy life, counter the cynical platitudes of our meek side, and and give us courage to keep on going.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Tina Parayre (Barcelona, 1949) graduated from the Escuela de Altos Estudios Mercantiles and the Institute of North American Studies, where she received a Herald Tribune Scholarship to represent Spain in the World Youth Forum. She is married and has two daughters. She began her volunteering career in 1987, and took control of the Department of Volunteers in 2000. She was ordained a Lay Cistercian in 1998. She holds various postgraduate degrees in psychology, Volunteer Coordination and Counseling.

Belén Roldán González (Barcelona, 1978) has a degree in Humanities by the Pompeu Fabra University and in Audiovisual Communication by the Ramon Llull University. She holds a postgraduate course in the science of publishing by the IdEC school. She works as a freelancer and lives in Barcelona.